A MOTHER'S TALE OF LOVE, LOSS, AND THE LIFELONG JOURNEY TO HEALING

Bio:

My name is Dr. KD Wagner. As a mother who lost two sons in separate homicides at 18 and 24, I help women who have experienced a tragic loss, who are struggling with suicidal thoughts, and who cannot find a reason to stay alive. I give them hope and ways to move forward, find their new purpose, and honor their loss so they, too, can learn to live life again.

Dr. KD Wagner is a multiple bestselling author, Eippy Award winner, international speaker, and former law enforcement officer. JEFFREY is the first book in THE NEXT DAY CAME trilogy. In this trio of stories, Wagner shares her journey through loss, grief, depression, addiction, planned suicide, and survival after the unimaginable violent loss of her sons in separate homicides. She has appeared on NBC, ABC, CBS, FOX, and stages with Joint Chief of Staff General Mark Milley, Governor/Senator Rick Scott, country singer Rockie Lynne, and Bob Circosta CEO and Founder of the Home Shopping Network. A Gold Star Mother—whose son died while serving in the U.S. Navy—KD serves as the President of the Florida Gulf Coast Chapter within the American Gold Star Mothers, Inc
